

2023 Membership Information

London Downs Golf Club (heretofore known as "Club"), which is owned and operated by London Downs Golf Club Inc., is located in Forest, Virginia and features an 18-hole championship golf course. The course was designed by Russell Breeden and opened in 1991 and offers five sets of tees for golfers of all skill levels, ranging from the 3,600-yard executive tees to the 6,938-yard blue tees. A grass and synthetic practice tee facility, putting green, full-service clubhouse and pavilion round out the London Downs facilities.

The Club operates as a semi-private facility serving daily fee golfers from the greater Lynchburg area. In addition, a Membership program offering a number of categories of membership to fit various lifestyles is available for regular users of the facilities.

Members of London Downs acknowledge that membership in the Club is non-participatory and does not include any ownership rights in the Club's assets, rights to receive or participate in any earnings of the Club nor any voting rights or right to participate in the management of the Club.

Members also acknowledge that the course hosts Outings and Tournaments and may not be available each and every day that a Member chooses to play.

Members enjoy the use of the Club's facilities and various Member benefits subject to the Club's Rules and Regulations.

The Club reserves the right at any time to terminate a membership for cause or without cause and refund the prorated portion of the Membership dues.
